ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

This is a non-competitive program whose goal is to introduce youngsters to the game of basketball. Scores and standings are not kept and players will be given equal playing time whenever possible. Our program utilizes volunteer coaches. Parents and family members who attend our games should remember that these people have donated their time and energy to assist with our program and should be given the full amount of respect for doing so. If you have any questions or concerns regarding any aspect of this program, please direct them to the gym supervisor, who attends all games, or contact the Benicia Parks and Community Services Department at 746-4306.
