*P3a. Description:

This residence is a good example of small pattern-book cottage revival from circa 1920s. It retains its historic appearance and integrity, but is located outside the boundaries of the Downtown Benicia Historic District. The building is not individually associated with an event or pattern of events in the history of Benicia, is not associated with an individual important in Benicia history, and is not a distinctive example of its period, style or type. The building is not eligible for individual listing and lacks the district context of a continuity of buildings of like character.
