Open Government Commission Application

In addition to completing the City of Benicia Board/Commission/Committee Application form, please respond to the following questions:

1. What interests you about the Open Government Commission?
2. What are your expectations for this Commission and how do you see your role on the Commission?
3. This Board meets quarterly, typically on a Monday evening. Currently the meetings begin at 5:00 pm. In addition, there may be several special meetings of the commission and/or subcommittees during the year. Do you feel you have the time and commitment to be a viable member of this Commission?
4. From April to October of every year, Open Government has members staff a booth at the Benicia Farmer's Market in downtown Benicia on Thursday evenings. Do you have the time to periodically help out at this event?
