We have received and reviewed your Proof of Claim, against the estate of Reliance* Insurance Company (in Liquidation). You may have submitted more than one Proof of Claim form. Also, if a single Proof of Claim form stated claims that appear to fall into different categories, we have separated these by type and will assign a Proof of Claim number to each. For these reasons you may receive more than one status notice. If you do receive more than one status notice please retain all. The status of your claim is explained below (IMPORTANT: If your claim was filed late, or if you do not provide information to the Liquidator within the time frames set by the Court, the priority of your claim could be affected and you could be excluded from any distributions. Please see the enclosed notice.):

A state guaranty association is handling your claim(s). The guaranty associations in each state provide a pool of funds available to policyholders whose insurance companies are insolvent, subject to certain state statutory caps, exclusions, and limitations. We must wait until they complete their handling of the claim and forward your file before we can evaluate your claim(s). Once that occurs, we will contact you if further information is needed.

Your claim has been assigned to an Evaluator. On January 17, 2008, the Commonwealth Court approved an interim distribution of assets for all NODs approved by the Court, subject to adjustment for claims under aggregate policies. However, it may be several years before all assets can be collected and the ultimate amount available for distribution can be determined. In the meantime, you are required to notify us of any change in address.

General questions should be addressed to the Statutory Liquidator of Reliance Insurance Co., P.O. Box 13527, Philadelphia, PA 19101-3527, Phone (215) 864-4000, Fax (215) 864-4400.

Proof of Claim Number: 2165814
Proof of Claim Received Date: 10/31/2012

ORDER OF THE COMMONWEALTH COURT OF PENNSYLVANIA (Court)

On May 1, 2007, the Court issued an order which established time frames for claimants to provide information to the Liquidator ("Order"). The Order requires that you provide the following information regarding your POC by November 12, 2007:

- Documentation of the resolution of underlying claims which were resolved prior to May 1, 2007;
- A status of underlying claims that are still pending; and
- A verification if no claims have been reported (for Reliance insureds only).

Annually thereafter you must report the status for all unresolved underlying claims or verification (by Reliance insureds) that no claims have been reported. For any claims resolved after May 1, 2007, you must provide all information within 90 days of the final resolution of the claim. If the Liquidator requests additional specific information, you must provide that information no later than 60 days from the Liquidator's request. If any required information is not available, you must submit a written explanation as to why such information cannot be obtained. If your claim is with a State Guaranty Association (GA) you need only confirm that the claim is being handled by the GA. DO NOT CONTACT THE GUARANTY ASSOCIATION.

Failure to provide information within the time frames outlined above could affect the priority class of your POC. The Liquidator may issue specific demands for information and if the required information is still not provided, the Liquidator may subordinate your POC to priority class (g)(2). At this point, it is unlikely that there will be sufficient assets to pay any portion of any class (g)(2) claims.

If you have not already received a packet of information concerning this order you can request one by calling 215-864-4000. In addition, a copy of the order can be viewed at www.reliancedocuments.com.

LATE FILED POCS

If your POC was received by the Liquidator after the December 31, 2003 filing deadline established by the Court (see Received Date above), then it was filed late. Pursuant to Section 221.37 of the Insurance Department Act of 1921, you will need to show good cause for the late filing. If you do not do so, the priority class of your POC may be affected and you may be excluded from any distributions. Unless you have already done so, please provide an explanation in writing, to the undersigned, within 60 days (as per the Order above) as to why the POC was filed late.

A "Protection POC" is a POC filed to cover claims that were unknown at the time the Protection POC was filed. If you filed a Protection POC before December 31, 2003, then information regarding any claims under that POC must be provided to the Liquidator within the time frames explained above and required by the Order. Please provide the Protection POC number when submitting any claim information under that POC.

All information required under the Order and regarding late filed POCs should be mailed to:
