

City of Benicia Code of Conduct for Members of City Council, Boards, Commissions and Committees

Preamble

The residents and businesses of Benicia are entitled to have fair, ethical and accountable local government, which has earned the public's full confidence for integrity. The effective functioning of democratic government therefore requires that:

- Public officials, both elected and appointed, comply with both the letter and spirit of the laws and politics affecting the operations of government;
- Public officials be independent, impartial and fair in their judgment and actions;
- Public office be used for the public good, not for personal gain; and
- Public deliberations and processes be conducted openly, unless legally confidential, in an atmosphere of respect and civility.

To this end, the Benicia City Council has adopted a Code of Conduct for members¹ of the City Council and the City's commissions to assure public confidence in the integrity of local government and its effective and fair operation.

This Code of Conduct describes the manner in which Council Members should treat one another, city staff, constituents, and others they come into contact with in representing the City of Benicia.

The constant and consistent theme through the conduct guidelines is "respect." Council Members experience huge workloads and tremendous stress in making decisions that could impact thousands of lives. Despite these pressures, elected officials are called upon to exhibit appropriate behavior at all times. These guidelines help guide Council Members to do the right thing in even the most difficult situations.

It is also recognized that Council Members have the duty to conduct City affairs in a business-like manner, assuring timely consideration of matters before them and thoughtful expeditious decision-making. These guidelines incorporating best practices among city governments can help guide Council Members to contribute to this end.

¹ For ease of reference in the Code of Conduct and unless the context indicates otherwise, the term "Council Member" or "member" refers to any member of the Benicia City Council or any of the City's boards, commissions or committees established by the City Council.

City of Benicia Code of Conduct

1. Acts in the Public Interest

Recognizing that stewardship of the public interest must be their primary concern, members will work for the common good of the people of Benicia and not for any private or personal interest, and they will assure fair and equal treatment of all persons, claims and transactions coming before the City Council and the City's commissions².

2. Comply with the Law

Members shall comply with the laws of the federal government, the State of California and the City of Benicia in the performance of their public duties. These laws include, but are not limited to: the United States and California constitutions; the City Municipal Code, laws pertaining to conflict of interest, elections campaigns, financial disclosures, employer responsibilities, and open processes of government; and City ordinances, resolutions and policies. Members shall not solicit political support from City Staff (financial contributions, display of signs, name on support list, etc.).

3. Conduct of Members

The professional and personal conduct of members must be above reproach and avoid even the appearance of impropriety. Members shall refrain from abusive conduct, personal charges or verbal attacks upon the character or motives of other members of the Council and commissions, the staff or the public.

4. Respect for Process

Members shall perform their duties in accordance with the processes and rules of order established by the City Council and commissions governing the deliberation of public policy issues, the involvement of the public, and the implementation of policy decisions of the City Council by City staff.

5. Conduct at Public Meetings

Members shall prepare themselves for public issues; listen courteously and attentively to all public discussions before the body; and focus on the business at hand. They shall refrain from interrupting other speakers; making personal comments not germane to the business of the body; or otherwise interfering with the orderly conduct of the meetings. Members shall commit to practice civility and decorum in discussions and debates. Members shall commit to honoring the role of the Chair in maintaining order, keeping discussion on track, and focusing discussion on agenda items at hand. Members shall avoid debate and argument with the public. Members shall not engage in personal attacks of any kind under any circumstance.

6. Decisions Based on Merit

Members shall base their decisions on the merits and substance of the matter at hand, rather than on unrelated considerations.

² For ease of reference in the Code of Conduct and unless the context indicates otherwise, the term "commissions" refers to any of the City's commissions, boards or committees established by the City Council.

7. Communication

Members shall publicly share substantive information that is relevant to a matter under consideration by the Council or commission, which they may have received from sources outside of the public decision-making process.

8. Conflict of Interest

In order to assure their independence and impartiality on behalf of the common good, members shall not use their official positions to influence government decisions in which they have a material financial interest.

9. Gifts and Favors

Members shall not take any special advantage of services or opportunities for personal gain, by virtue of their public office, which are not available to the public in general. They shall refrain from accepting any gifts, favors or promises of future benefits which might compromise their independence of judgment or action or give the appearance of being compromised.

10. Confidential Information

Members shall respect the confidentiality of information concerning the property, personnel or affairs of the City. They shall neither disclose confidential information without proper legal authorization, nor use such information to advance their personal, financial or other private interests.

11. Use of Public Resources

Members shall not use public resources that are not available to the public in general, such as City staff time, equipment, supplies or facilities, for private gain or personal purposes.

12. Representation of Private Interests

In keeping with their role as stewards of the public interest, members of the Council shall not appear on behalf of the private interests of third parties before the Council or any commissions or proceedings of the City, nor shall members of commissions appear before their own bodies or before the Council on behalf of the private interests of third parties on matters related to the areas of service of their bodies.

13. Advocacy

Members shall represent the official policies or positions of the City Council or commissions to the best of their ability when designated as delegates. When presenting their individual opinions and positions, members shall explicitly state they do not represent their body or the City of Benicia, nor will they allow the inference that they do.

14. Policy Role of Members

Members shall respect and adhere to the council-manager structure of city government as provided by state law and City Code. In this structure, the City Council determines the policies of the City with the advice, information and analysis provided by the public, commissions, and City Staff.

Members therefore shall not interfere with the administrative functions of the City or the professional duties of City Staff; nor shall they impair the ability of staff to implement Council policy decisions. Members should refrain from:

- Disrupting staff from the conduct of their jobs
- Involvement in administrative functions
- Attending staff meetings unless requested by staff

15. Independence of Boards and Commissions

Because of the value of the independent advice of commissions to the public decision-making process, members of Council shall refrain from using their position to influence the deliberations or outcomes of commission proceedings.

16. Positive Work Place Environment

Members shall support the maintenance of a positive and constructive work place environment for City employees and for residents and businesses dealing with the City. Members shall recognize their special role in dealings with City employees to in no way create the perception of inappropriate direction to staff.

17. Implementation & Enforcement

As an expression of the standards of conduct for members expected by the City, this Code of Conduct is intended to be self-enforcing. It, therefore, becomes most effective when members are thoroughly familiar with it and embrace its provisions.

For this reason, ethical standards shall be included in the regular orientation for candidates for City Council, applicants to commissions, and newly elected and appointed officials. Members entering office shall sign a statement affirming that they read and understand the City of Benicia Code of Conduct.

This Code shall be reviewed annually by the City Council and City commissions at the annual organization and procedures meeting of each body. At such meeting, Council Members and Commissioners shall sign a statement affirming they have read and understand the Code of Conduct.

The Benicia Code of Conduct expresses standards of ethical conduct expected for members of the City Council and commissions. Members themselves have the primary responsibility to assure that ethical standards are understood and met, and that the public can continue to have full confidence in the integrity of government.

The chairs of commissions and the Mayor have the additional responsibility to intervene when actions of members that appear to be in violation of the Code of Conduct are brought to their attention.

I affirm that I have read and understand the City of Benicia Code of Conduct.
