

Dixon

By Carol Warren

Even if you decide you have no legal responsibility toward us, your uprail neighbors, do you not have a moral obligation?

The RR runs through Dixon, CA

The trains pass right by the church.

Children play and families live along side the rail tracks.

The tracks pass beside the town's power plant while traffic waits to cross.

